A journey through Manchester and Liverpool's industrial, musical and cultural heritage before exploring the landscapes, food and literary history of the Lake District.

Day 1 Manchester

Industrial, creative, and energetic, welcome to Manchester! Transfer to your hotel where you can spend the remainder of the day at leisure.

STAY 3 NIGHTS: Treehouse Hotel Manchester 4-star or similar

Day 2 Manchester (B)

After breakfast, enjoy a guided introduction to Manchester, a city transformed by the Industrial Revolution and renowned for its contribution to British music and culture. Your afternoon is at leisure.

Day 3 Manchester – Liverpool – Manchester (B)

After breakfast, catch the train to Liverpool. Discover the city's extraordinary musical legacy on a shared Beatles small group walking tour.

After time for an independent lunch, continue your discovery with a shared heritage, history and culture walking tour, exploring Liverpool's waterfront and historic centre. Return to Manchester by train and enjoy your final evening in the city at leisure.

Day 4 Manchester – Cartmel – Near Sawrey – Bowness-on-Windermere (B, L)

After breakfast, depart for the Lake District. Stop in Cartmel, home to the acclaimed L'Enclume, and enjoy an eight-course farm-to-table lunch showcasing seasonal produce. Continue through the spectacular scenery to visit Hill Top, Beatrix Potter's former home before arriving to your accommodation in Lake Windermere.

STAY 3 NIGHTS: The White House or similar

Day 5 Bowness-on-Windermere – Castlerigg Stone Circle – Grasmere – Bowness-on-Windermere

Today, set out on a shared Lakes tour. Travel through the mountains and valleys, stopping at Castlerigg Stone Circle. Continue to Grasmere, a village closely associated with poet William Wordsworth and famed for its gingerbread. Return to Lake Windermere and board a small group scenic cruise, before enjoying the remainder of the evening at leisure.

Day 6 Bowness-on-Windermere – Ravenglass – Muncaster Castle – Bowness-on-Windermere

Travel west through the Lake District to board the celebrated Ravenglass & Eskdale Railway on a nostalgic journey to Dalegarth. Once you disembark, continue to Muncaster Castle* where to explore the grounds and gardens. Return to Lake Windermere for your final evening.

Day 7 Bowness-on-Windermere

After breakfast, continue your journey, perhaps north towards the Scottish Borders, Edinburgh or beyond.
